One reinspection will be conducted (if needed) at no charge. A service fee is assessed for each additional reinspection required.

Violation: NO CURRENT FOOD HANDLER CARD CERTIFICATES FOR EMPLOYEES

Description/Corrective Action: The kitchen manager’s safety certification is expired. Since another staffer is safety manager certified, the site manager may comply by obtaining a food handler safety card. Food handler cards can be readily obtained by registering for an online course. In either case, submit a copy of either Food Manager certification or food handler card to this department within the next 30 days.

General Comments:

All monitored cold food temperatures were monitored well below 41 F as required.

No cooked or hot foods were prepared at the time of inspection.

All hot and cold water supply sources were fully functional.

The final rinse cycle of the automatic dish-wash machine was observed to reach a temperature of 180 F. This temperature meets the state minimum requirement of 160 F.

The facility was observed to be in overall very good operational condition.

Violation: None Noted

General Comments:
All cold holding units were checked for temperatures. All reach-in refrigerators, the each-in freezer, and both walk-in box cooler and walk-in box freezer were all observed to hold at good temperatures. The maximum allowable refrigeration temperature is 41 F and all refrigerators were holding between 37 F and 39 F. Their is no freezer maximum temperature as freezing occurs at 32 F. However, all freezer units were holding at or below 0 F.

Facility staff log refrigeration/freezer unit temperatures daily. Staff also log daily food holding temperatures of cooked foods and cold foods before distribution.

The high temperature dishwash machine was observed to reach a final rinse cycle of 191 F which well met the minimum final rinse cycle temperature of 160 F.

All food storage areas were found to be very well organized and operational condition. This included the walk-in box units and the dry food storage warehouse area.
